FOREWORDS

The MXGP series returns to The Netherlands in the fabulous sandy track of Oss where the Dutch riders can make the difference between them and the rest of the pack as they did two years ago during the Monster Energy FIM MXoN when they were crowned in Assen.

Needless to say, that it is thanks to the joint efforts of Infront Motor Racing, the KNMV, the local Authorities and the Oss Organiser that local fans, and motocross lovers from around the world, will be lured into the track and enjoy live motocross racing in Holland again, where a new history will be written during this weekend.

The roar of the crowd still echoes in the minds of those who witnessed how riders negotiated the different parts of the sandy track in Assen. I am not the only one who still sees those "bullets" moving through the lines of the track in harmony with the cheers of the crowds. All of us, at the FIM, are very much looking forward to seeing tracks packed with unconditional motocross fans, getting excited while following the MXGP series around the world.

We all must not forget to be grateful with all those who generously offer some of their time to make these events a reality by marshalling or being part of the staff in the races by enduring all sorts of weather conditions and making everything much easier for the MXGP series to be successful.

Antonio Alia Portela
FIM/CMS Director

Dear MXGP Friends,

Finally, after the long winter break we are able to run our favorite sport again. The 2021 MXGP season will probably be one of the most intense of the history with 19 events in 7 months. The beginning of the season is giving a lot of promises that it will be very disputed until the last race.

Despite the very challenging times and all the difficulties to organise international sporting events, all our organisers and the federations are working very hard with us to be able to deliver the best and most complete season possible.

MXGP's presence on the various media platforms is continuing to attract a lot of interest worldwide. Not having the possibility to host public last year has increased our exposure on Social Media even faster, with Facebook reaching more than 3 Million fans, Instagram counts more than 1 Million followers, YouTube MXGP channel continues to grow with more than 260,000 subscribers and counting. Since last season we have also started to provide the news highlights in different languages (Spanish, Italian, Indonesian). Finally, we launched for this season a bright new MXGP-TV.com platform for all the fans of MXGP to be able to watch all the races LIVE anytime, anywhere.

But coming to 2021, we are very enthusiastic than we will get back to normality soon. The first rounds of the season in Russia, Great Britain and Italy allowed us to host public.

This year the MXGP of the Netherlands will take place in Oss. It is a new venue on the calendar and we are sure that it will be organised in a perfect way. The Netherlands are a country of Motocross and the Dutch fans will have a lot of home riders to support. At the top of them, Jeffrey Herlings demonstrated last week in Maggiora that he has a fantastic rhythm. He won the GP of Italy, but the top 3 scored the same points (Coldenhoff and Cairoli were second and third) The MXGP class is very disputed with the top 5 riders within 30 points in the overall classifications. In MX2, Van de Moosdijk is fifth and 5 riders are within 15 points of one another.

During this Grand Prix we will also host the EMX Open and EMX250cc, two championships that are growing every year.

Finally, I would like to thank the FIM, the FIM Europe, all our partners, manufacturers, teams, riders, organizers, medias for their support and collaboration. Because of this great collaboration between all the parties, MXGP has become the most popular off-road motorcycling Championship in the World.

See you all in Oss!

ORGANIZER'S WELCOME MESSAGE

It feels fantastic to be able to bring a motocross world championship event back to Oss. I live close by the motocross track, and have grown up in the area. Over the years I have attended many big races, and have keenly followed the achievements of Dutch riders at world championship level. So for me it's extra special to host such a big race in Oss.

The idea originated a few years ago to bring a world championship event to Oss. The Dutch GPs of the past few years have invariably gone to Valkenswaard, Lierop or Assen, but now with Oss on the map, I believe that riders and fans have something new to look forward to. When we came upon the idea a few years ago, we immediately started building a strong base to enable us to organize in a good way, of course, organizing such a huge event is complicated, but we have a great team of colleagues and are confident that everything will be organized in a high level.

We will jointly determine an optimal mix of product supply, service levels and turnaround time in order to deliver the best possible service. With our experience we are confident that we can make an event from the MXGP in Oss that comes back every year!

Oss is already a spectacular track, but with Glenn Coldenhoff and Roan van de Moosdijk as consultants, we have worked on improving it even further. We have removed some overgrowth that may have obscured the view, and spectators can now be assured of unobstructed views of almost the entire track.

Right next to the track we have the state-of-the-art VIP section. Visitors to the VIP enclosure will miss nothing of the racing action. You can view the race live from the terrace outside, or opt to watch it on the multiple TV screens that will be installed inside. Between the races, there will be performances by various artists, exclusively for VIP guests.

Sport and entertainment are perfect companions, and that is why the MXGP Oss festival has been organized, with performances by well-known artists before - , during and after the races like Andre Hazes, Rene le Blanc, Django Wagner and a live DJ. The event will feature several stages, and the weekend will be a perfect getaway event for the entire family, young and old.

We hope all the fans and visitors will have a great weekend with some nice, close racing and of course a lot of enjoyable moments at the different podiums!

Ebert Dollevoet
